Reading I | Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people:

"The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate's presence when he had decided to release him.

You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you.

The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses.

Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer.

Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away."

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm | Ps 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9

1. When I call, answer me, O my just God, you who relieve me when I am in distress; have pity on me, and hear my prayer!
2. Know that the LORD does wonders for his faithful one; the LORD will hear me when I call upon him.
3. O LORD, let the light of your countenance shine upon us! You put gladness into my heart.
4. As soon as I lie down, I fall peacefully asleep, for you alone, O LORD, bring security to my dwelling.

Reading II | 1 Jn 2:1-5a

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin.
But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father,
Jesus Christ the righteous one.

He is expiation for our sins,
and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world.
The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments.
Those who say, "I know him," but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them.
But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.

The Word of the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation | Lk 24:32

Text: O filii et filiae; Jean Tisserand, d.1494; tr. by John M. Neale, 1818–1866, alt.
Tune: O FILII ET FILIAE, 888 with alleluia and refrain; Mode II, French carol, 15th C.; acc. by Richard Proulx, 1937–2010

Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us;
make our hearts burn while you speak to us.

The Holy Gospel | Lk 24:35-48

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this,
he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."
But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost.
Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled?
And why do questions arise in your hearts?
Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself.
Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones
as you can see I have."
And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.
While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed,
he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?"
They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them,
"These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you,
that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled."
Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.
And he said to them,
"Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer
and rise from the dead on the third day
and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.
You are witnesses of these things."

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
(all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Second Collection for Extraordinary Needs

Today there is a second collection for Extraordinary Needs. This monthly second collection helps fund outreach for the National Eucharistic Revival leading up to the National Eucharistic Congress that will be in Indianapolis this July. The funds raised from this collection will go toward creating a Eucharistic Village Hospitality Center at the Eucharistic Congress on our parking lot and the west block of Georgia Street. The village will feature food and drink vendors where pilgrims can grab breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Funds will also go toward a Eucharistic-themed painting that will be placed in the largest archway in the north transept of St. John's. Mike McCarthy, St. John's parishioner, and Sacred Artist, has been commissioned for this painting that will be unveiled and blessed at the Eucharistic Congress. Funds will also go toward local marketing efforts through the Paint the City Initiative to spread awareness about the National Eucharistic Congress locally in Indianapolis. To date, we have raised $54,060 from this monthly collection. Thank you for your generosity in this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity as St. John's becomes the front door for the Eucharistic Congress Give directly to this fund: <https://www.osvhub.com/stjohnsindy/funds/extraordinary-needs-2nd-sunday>

FATHER'S NEW TERM AND SABBATICAL

Dear St. John's Friends and Parishioners,

I'm happy to share that Archbishop Thompson has extended my current assignment for one year as Pastor at St. John's and Chaplain at IUPUI with renewal of future extensions on a year to year basis! As you may know, my 2nd-term as Pastor at St. John's was up this July. I am grateful to be extended for an additional year (hopefully many more) at St. John's and on the Campus of IUPUI! Archbishop Thompson has also granted me a 4-month sabbatical that I will take in chunks of time over the next year after the Eucharistic Congress. All priests qualify for a sabbatical every 7 years, and I haven't had the opportunity to take a sabbatical in my 16 years of priesthood, and am looking forward to this opportunity for renewal. Thank you for all your prayers, and I look forward to what the Lord has in store for our parish in the year ahead!

In the Spirit of St. John the Evangelist,
Father Rick Nagel
