Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord God, hear our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
FIRST READING

The LORD said to Elijah:
“You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah, as prophet to succeed you.”
Elijah set out and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, as he was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen; he was following the twelfth.
Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him.
Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said,
“Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and I will follow you.”
Elijah answered, “Go back! Have I done anything to you?”
Elisha left him, and taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them;
he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh, and gave it to his people to eat.
Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant.

The Word of the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 16:1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11

You are my inheritance, O Lord.

1. Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge;
I say to the LORD, “My Lord are you.
O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup,
you it is who hold fast my lot.”

2. I bless the LORD who counsels me;
even in the night my heart exhorts me.
I set the LORD ever before me; with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

3. Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices, my body, too, abides in confidence because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

4. You will show me the path to life,
fullness of joys in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever.

SECOND READING

Gal 5:1, 13-18

Brothers and sisters:
For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.
For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters.
But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love.
For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another.
I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

The Word of the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

1 Sm 3:9; Jn 6:68c

Speak, Lord, your servant is listening; you have the words of everlasting life.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Lk 9:51-62

When the days for Jesus’ being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem, and he sent messengers ahead of him. On the way they entered a Samaritan village to prepare for his reception there, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, “Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?” Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village.

As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, “I will follow you wherever you go.” Jesus answered him, “Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head.”

And to another he said, “Follow me.” But he replied, “Lord, let me go first and bury my father.” But he answered him, “Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.” And another said, “I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home.” To him Jesus said, “No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Second Collection for Peter’s Pence

The Peter’s Pence collection derives its name from an ancient custom. In ninth-century England, King Alfred the Great collected money, a "pence", from landowners as financial support for the Pope. Today the Peter's Pence collection supports the Pope's philanthropy by giving the Holy Father means to provide emergency assistance to those in need because of natural disaster, war, oppression, and disease. Thank you for your generosity.

WHO CAN YOU INVITE TO EXPLORE THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

Are you looking for a sense of belonging in a faith community? Are you seeking greater fulfillment of your mission in life? This fall St. John’s will begin the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) for those who are interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith. RCIA is the process by which adults participate in a period of formation culminating in the reception of the Sacraments of Initiation during the Easter Vigil Mass this next spring.

Perhaps you have been joining us for Mass but are not baptized, are not Catholic, or are Catholic but have not received the Sacraments of the Eucharist and/or Confirmation. If you are already in full communion with the Catholic Church but know someone who is not and might be interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, please share this info and invite them to participate in our upcoming program of formation to deepen their relationship with Christ and understanding of the Catholic faith. For more information, please contact Father Rick Nagel for more info: fathernagel@gmail.com.
